CHAPTER II - Policies and Procedures Relating to Educational Policy

Section 10. Selection of Members of System and Institutional Committees

10.3 Institutional Advisory Committee to Assist the Presidential Search Committee. The Institutional Advisory Committee shall consist of 5 faculty members who have been nominated to the Chair[man] of the Board of Regents. These nominees shall be elected from each college, the library, and the professional staff unit. Three administrators shall be nominated by the administration, a senator elected by the Faculty Senate, one graduate student elected by the Graduate Student Association, one student shall be nominated by the CSUN Senate and one alumnus shall be nominated by the executive committee of the Alumni Association Board of Directors. Such other persons as may be deemed necessary may be included by the Chair of the Board of Regents. The affirmative act on officer shall serve ex officio. This committee and the Presidential Search Committee shall review all applications for the position and shall meet jointly at the call of the chair of the Presidential Search Committee to discuss the qualifications of applicants and the recommendations of the Institutional Advisory Committee before the Presidential Search Committee schedules candidate interviews. The committees may jointly interview and evaluate candidates, after which the Presidential Search Committee shall meet to select its nominee or nominees for consideration by the Board of Regents. 1.5.4 Vacancy in the Office of President

If the Board determines to conduct a national search, a Regents’ Presidential Search Committee composed of six members of the Board of Regents shall be appointed by the Chair of the Board for the purpose of recruiting and screening and for recommending a nominee or nominees to the full Board of Regents for consideration by the Board for appointment to the position. The Chair of the Board shall appoint the chair of the Regents’ Presidential Search Committee. The Chair of the Board of Regents shall also appoint institutional advisory members to the Committee from the member institution involved to include five faculty members nominated by the senate, up to three administrators, one classified or technical employee nominated by the classified or technical employees’ organization, if any, and, one undergraduate student representative and one graduate student representative nominated by the appropriate student government as applicable to the institution involved, and one alumnus. The chair may also appoint such other persons as advisory members to the Committee as Comment: UNLV by-laws refer to two separate committees, but Code refers only to one.

Paul Werth 3/22/14 9:30 AM
Comment: “from each college” suggests elections at college level, but there is no indication how to move from those elections to five nominees.

Paul Werth 3/22/14 9:25 AM
Comment: No reference in Code to a senator elected from the Senate. This discrepancy needs to be fixed.

Paul Werth 3/22/14 9:30 AM
Comment: UNLV by-laws do not make reference to a “classified or technical employee,” as does the Code.

Paul Werth 3/22/14 9:30 AM
Comment: Arguably this whole portion of the text is not needed, because the functioning of the search committee is not a matter of UNLV by-laws.
may be deemed necessary. The affirmative action officer of the member institution involved, if any, shall be an ex officio advisory member of the Committee. The institutional advisory members of the Committee serve as non-voting members to advise the voting members of the Regents’ Presidential Search Committee on matters being considered.
